

FDIC DEPOSIT INSURANCE COVERAGE

The temporary increase of FDIC Insurance has been extended through December 31, 2013

The standard insurance amount currently is $250,000 per depositor. The $250,000 limit is permanent for IRAs and other certain retirement accounts. The $250,000 limit is temporary for all other deposit accounts through December 31, 2013. On January 1, 2014, the standard insurance amount will return to $100,000 per depositor for all account categories except IRAs and other certain retirement accounts, which will remain at $250,000 per depositor.

To ensure funds are fully protected, depositors should understand their coverage limits. The FDIC provides separate coverage for deposits held in different account ownership categories. The coverage limits shown in the chart below refer to the total of all deposits that an accountholder has in the same ownership categories at each FDIC-insured institution. The chart below assumes that all FDIC requirements are met (for details on the requirements, go to www.fdic.gov/deposit/deposits).

 The Bank is participating in the FDIC's Transaction Account Guarantee Program. Under that program, through June 30, 2010, all noninterest-bearing transaction accounts are fully guaranteed by the FDIC for the entire amount in the account. Coverage under the Transaction Account Guarantee Program is in addition to and separate from the coverage available under the FDIC's general deposit insurance rules. The extension of the temporary standard insurance amount of $250,000 through 2013 does not apply to the Transaction Account Guarantee Program. We offer the following accounts covered by that program: Free Checking, Business Checking, Analyzed Checking, Municipal Checking, and Interest on Lawyers' Trust Accounts.*
